NUMBER OF JOBS: 1 Job

BACKGROUND: Anita Stephenson began quilting 15 years ago. She worked at Hancock Fabrics and JoAnn Fabrics where the quilting-bug really bit and from there began quilting on a more serious level. She has taken numerous workshops on how to start her own business and how to run it as well. Her initial dream was a fabric store, but do to circumstances chose to pursue the long arm services along with teaching classes out of her rural home.

ASSISTANCE REQUESTED: A Business Plan

RESULTS: A New Business

QUOTABLE: "I worked with Mark Slade of SBDC on my original business idea and when I changed the business Nancy assisted in the business plan development. She did her homework to understand my business. Mark also assisted with the financial projections for the current business. Thank you to both for helping me get my business started!"
