BACKGROUND: Owner/operator of Little Sprouts by day and completing crafts projects in spare time has always been part of my life. I started attending craft fairs in June 2012, where people kept asking if I had a store. So we opened Dec 1, 2012. It is a good outlet for my items, and we have other vendors with their items as well. Products offered include new purses & Scentsy, and the repurposed items include: coasters, bulletin boards, household décor furniture & jewelry, and much more. It is an ever changing display of items.
